WEDNESDAY EVENING, SEPT. 18, 1907.

A London Banquet of 1582.

A Spanish visitor to London in 1582 describes a banquet of that day. "I will tell you no lie," he begins cautiously. "I saw such kinds of meats eaten as are wont to be seen and not eaten—as a horse roasted, a cat in gely, little lizards with wrot broth, frogs fried and divers other sorts of meats, which I sawe theme eat, but I never knew what they were till they were eaten." The "quaking custard" of that period was a huge dish in the middle of the table, into which, "at a private signal, the city fool suddenly leaped over the heads of the astonished feasters, who were instantly bespattered with this rich and savory mud." Undeterred, however, by this nasty behavior, the citizens not only ate plentifully of the custard, but even took some home to their wives. "Nor were the women of those days backward in demanding expensive delicacies for themselves. It seems, from an essayist of 1901 sarcastically asks: "Who will not admire our nice dames of London, who must have cherries at 20 shillings a pound and peascods at 5 shillings a peck? Young rabbits of a spanne and chickens of an inch?"

Slaves in Scotland.

Were there once slaves in Scotland? A volume on Scottish industrial and social history in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries has some passages on the subject: "It shocks us very much to learn that the men, and even the women, who worked in the coal mines at that time—i. e., the eighteenth century—in Scotland still continued to be, as of old, little better than slaves. By a law passed by the Scottish parliament in 1606 every man who once went to work in a coal mine was bound to labor in it all his life as a 'necessary servant.' If he tried to run away he was tried and punished as a thief. If the land was sold on which the coal pit stood in which he worked he was sold with it like any of the machinery of the pit. In 1775 an act of parliament was passed which set free most of the pit workers, but it was not till the end of the century that this form of slavery was quite abolished."

Odd Occurrence in the Hunting Field

On the afternoon of Feb. 8, 1794, the hounds of his grace the Duke of Beaufort were in full cry. The run had been a long one, and they knew that the fox was about. Suddenly the scent turned abruptly from the open, leading straight into the garden of a cottage in the little village of Castle Combe. Those who were following wondered what had happened and were more astonished still to see the entire pack, without checking for an instant, dash through the open door into the little room. A shrill scream was heard, and when the whipper in threw himself from his horse and gained the threshold he saw a sight which probably no fox hunter has ever met before or since. A white faced woman stood clasping a child in her arms, and right there in the cradle, from which the infant had just been snatched, eighteen couple of fierce hounds were struggling to devour their fox.

The Auto Habit.

Some deliver has found in the Bible what he believes to be a hint of automobiles. It is contained in the story of the vision of Nahum, the Elkoshite, concerning the burden of Nineveh. In the account given by this seer of the military array of the Medes and Babylonians against Nineveh occurs this verse: "The chariots shall rage in the streets, they shall jostle one against the other in the broad way, they shall seem like torches, they shall run like the lightning." If that doesn't describe a street full of motor cars who does? Then, again, a variant of the word "jostle," which the original Hebrew word, it is said, bear even better, is "pass swiftly, without particular purpose, to and fro." Isn't that the automobile habit?

Smoking a Pipe.

The Canadian Cigar and Tobacco Journal gives some hints to those who smoke pipes. Everybody thinks he knows how to smoke a pipe, but to do it perfectly is not easy. "Time is a keynote of successful pipe smoking," says the Journal, "and another is gentleness. Take it easy. Don't crowd the pipe to the top of the bowl. Never get a pipe hot. Keep cool, and keep your pipe cool. You can relight a pipe, and if you are an old smoker you will be all the better for it. When you have finished do not refill a heated pipe."

Washington Monument.

The towering Washington monument, solid as it is, cannot resist the heat of the sun poured on its southern side on a midsummer's day without a slight bending of the gigantic shaft, which is rendered perceptible by means of a copper wire 174 feet long hanging in the center of the structure and carrying a plummet suspended in a vessel of water.

Animal Voices.

A cow will moo about an octave; a dog will bark a fourth or fifth of an octave; a horse's neigh is a descent on the chromatic scale, while the donkey will bray in octaves. No donkey has ever yet given evidence of proficiency in the study of voice production.

Success.

The Youth—Yes, I'm in business for myself, but I don't seem to be able to meet with any success. The Sage—No body ever meets with success, young man. He must overtake it.

Think Lightly of It.

The road to home happiness is said to lie over small stepping stones. So are small sometimes the causes of our unhappiness that we wonder the consequences can be so great. One great palliative is the determination by every member of the family not to dwell on the circumstances, whatever they may be, which are alike sad to all. If it be poverty let it be cheerfully and silently borne; if it be the ill temper of grandpa try to make a joke of it. If it be something infinitely worse and also hopeless accept it bravely; do not talk of it. Try in the family circle to ignore it. Accept every little annoying circumstance. Let in all the sun and air. Work on cheerfully and hopefully, knowing that there is the ray of sunshine somewhere that has only to be looked for to be found.

Squeezing the Grapes.

"In wine making," said a wine expert, "the grapes are squeezed from one to six times, and from each squeeze a different grade of wine is made." That is why from one district and from one firm so many varieties of wine come. These varieties don't mean that each is made from a different kind of grape. They mean, as a rule, that they are made from different squeezes of the same grape. The first squeeze of course makes the best and dearest wine. When you buy this grade you will always find on the label the words "Premier Cru," first squeeze."

Tricks of the Types.

A laughable error occurred in one of the large publishing houses a number of years ago. A poet had sent in a manuscript in which was the line, "See the pale martyr in a sheet of fire." The reputation of the writer was nearly ruined when the work came out with the line, "See the pale martyr with his shirt on fire."

When a favorite speaker rose and was greeted with thunderous applause his party paper came out and said, "The vast concourse rent the air with their snouts."

More Exciting.

Tout—Has Jones quit the race track because of reform, or what? Jockey—Reform nothing! He wanted something more uncertain to bet his money on. Tout—But what could he find more uncertain than a horse race? Jockey—He's taken to betting whether or not the weather man will correctly predict the day's condition.—Florida Times-Union.

Not Cheap.

Aged Husband.—You are going to ruin me with your extravagance. You don't need that cape any more than a rat needs two tails. How often have I told you never to buy anything because it is cheap? Young Wife.—With an air of one who has got the better of the argument.—But it was not cheap. It cost 10 guineas.—London Fun.

In a New Light.

Fair Visitor—So you have really decided not to sell your house? Fair Hostess—Yes. You see, we placed the matter in the hands of a real estate agent. After reading his lovely advertisement of our property neither John nor myself could think of parting with such a wonderful and perfect home.

Attack of Diarrhoea Cured by One Dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

I was so weak from an attack of diarrhoea that I could scarcely attend to my duties, when I took a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It cured me entirely and I had been taking other medicine for nine days without relief. I heartily recommend this remedy as being the best to my knowledge for bowel complaints.—R. G. Stewart, of the firm of Stewart & Bro., Greenville, Ala. For sale by W. E. Creighton & Co. and Gibson & Timberman.

Health in the Canal Zone.

The high wages paid makes it a mighty temptation to our young artists to join the force of skilled workmen needed to construct the Panama Canal. Many are restrained, however by the fear of fevers and malaria. It is the knowing ones—those who have used Electric Bitters, who go there without this fear, well knowing they are safe from malaria influence with Electric Bitters on hand. Cures blood poison, biliousness, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney troubles. Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store. 50c.

OLD DUTCH CLEANSER for sale at J. C. MILBURN.

The pills peculiar to women, take different forms. Some ladies suffer, every month, from dark rings round their eyes, blotches on their skin and tired feeling. Others suffer agonies of pain, that words can hardly express. Whatever the symptoms, remember there is one medicine that will go beyond mere symptoms, and act on the cause of their troubles, the weakened womanly organs.

Wine of Cardui
